PUBLIC COMMENT: None

CORRESPONDENCE: None

OLD BUSINESS: Update on Community Center meeting-
Staff shared that the committee continues in a positive direction. This new committee is ready to get moving forward as they have agreed to two buildings to encompass the needs of the group. One building will house Inyo Council for the Arts and Playhouse 395 with a black box theater and a Performing Arts Center for large venues. The other building will house Roller Hockey, basketball, volley ball gymnastics, multi-use rooms as well as office space for Parks and Recreation staff. The next meeting is set for next Wednesday at noon. The group will begin to brainstorm funding ideas and create a vision on paper. Pictures speak, so this will be the best way to sell it.

NEW BUSINESS: None

STAFF REPORT: For this staff report staff members reiterated the State of The City as addressed to City Council in November. They reviewed all programs and projects for the past year. They included the amount of children and adults that attended the programs and all maintenance upgrades made by the parks and recreation staff. Waylon also updated the Commission on the status of the Adult Soccer League, preparation for the Street of Lights and the Christmas parade. Dan shared that water shut downs are starting and final winterization for the park facilities.

ITEMS FROM THE COMMISSION:

Commissioner Weatherford asked about the possibility of lights on field 2. Dan said currently there are not any; there is a box that could create the possibilities on field 3 with upcoming renovations to that field thru Little League.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 6:05 pm to reconvene on January 22, 2013 at 5:15pm in the City Council Chambers.
