Public Works News Release

Water and Sewer Meeting

Most people who live in the City of Bishop know the last of a series of water and sewer rate increases goes into effect in July. Starting in July a single family residence will pay $52 per month for unlimited water and sewer use. Some people would like to know more about this increase. At 7 pm on Tuesday 24 April the City of Bishop Water and Sewer Commission is holding the second of two public meetings to discuss the rate increases and why they are needed.

The Water and Sewer Commission and Public Works staff will be on hand at the meeting to provide information on the needs and finances of the City's water and sewer systems and to gather input on the systems and the projects the City proposes. The Water and Sewer Commission held the first public meeting 20 March. Finally, the City Council will hold a public hearing at their meeting 11 June.

The meeting 7 pm on 24 April 2007 will be in the Bishop City Auditorium at the northeast corner of West Line Street and Fowler Street. Everyone interested in the City of Bishop's water and sewer systems, and the rates charged to use those systems should plan to attend these meetings.
